

Rules of Procedure

according to the decisions of the General Meeting of October 7th, 2013

Communications modalities: Information that is not of high importance can be exchanged among members by use of emails. All the others have to be transported by use of postal services.